

Video host: Taylor Swift's named Time magazine's 2023 person of the year!

Taylor Swift: It's been amazing, loving it...

Video host: In her first interview in four years, the singer opens up about her romance with Travis Kelce, including why they went public so fast.

Kevin Frazier of ET: Travis, you're the kind of guy he would talk about!

Travis Kelce: (laughter) I love it, though!

Video host: Tay talks about the early days of their relationship and how Travis did get her attention when he spoke about her publicly on his New Heights podcast in July. She says:

Taylor Swift: This all started when Travis very adorably put me on blast on his podcast, which I thought was metal as hell.

Travis Kelce: Taylor Swift concerts, there are friendship bracelets, and I wanted to give Taylor Swift one with my number on it... (smirk) all right now.

Interviewer: Ooh! your number, as in 87, or your phone number?

Travis Kelce: you know which one... (smirk). Well I was disappointed that, uh, she doesn't talk before or after her shows because she has to save her voice for the 44 songs that she sings, so I was a little butthurt...

Video host: But it worked! Taylor says they started hanging out right after that.

Taylor Swift: so, we actually had a significant amount of time that no one knew which I'm grateful for because we got to get to know each other.

Taylor Swift (an excerpt from an old interview): you never know what it's going to be!

Video host: And get this! Taylor reveals at that first Kansas City Chiefs game she attended to support Travis, they were already a couple!

ESPN game commentator (camera zooming in on Taylor): in the box, she is there! Whatever that means... She will see what we hope is a fantastic contest.

Taylor Swift: I think some people think that they saw our first date at that game...?! we would never be psychotic enough to hard-launch a first date!

Taylor Swift (an excerpt from an old interview): I just have a great time with these things!

Video host: As far as the attention at the games goes...

NBC Sports commentator (camera zooming in on Taylor): Ladies and gentlemen, the Eras Tour continues! Taylor Swift is in the building, (laughter) here to check out the Jets and the Chiefs... But more specifically, obviously, Travis Kelce.

Video host: Taylor tells the mag she doesn't know how the cameras know what suite she's in or if she's being shown 17 times or once, quote:

Taylor Swift: I'm just there to support Travis. I have no awareness of if I'm being shown too much and pissing off a few dads, Brads and Chads...

Video host: In fact, the singer's just there to watch as a sports Lover (reference to a Taylor Swift song). Taylor gushes:

Taylor Swift: Football's awesome! Turns out, I've been missing out my whole life...

Taylor Swift (excerpt from an old video): Oh, definitely!

Video host: Since then, the support for their careers goes both ways: In November, Travis flew all the way to Argentina for Taylor's South American leg of her Eras tour.

Taylor Swift (singing at her concert): Karma is the guy on the Chiefs coming straight home to me

Crowd: (screams)

Travis Kelce: (dancing in the crowd happily)

Travis Kelce: I live life, dog. I live life to the fullest. I try and, you know, spread the love...

Video host: And the two are spreading the love by being there for each other. Tay tells the mag:

Taylor Swift: When you say a relationship is public, that means I'm going to see him do what he loves, we're showing up for each other, other people are there and we don't care. The opposite of that is: you have to go to an extreme amount of effort to make sure no one knows that you're seeing someone, and we're just proud of each other.

Taylor Swift (an excerpt from an old interview): There are incredible perks that come with this life, there are also really heavy pressures that come with this life, and you just have to try to balance them.
